

Flow Chart – Staff Performance Review

Staff Performance Review – Performance Reviews are a two-way process between the supervisor and the staff member to ensure competent, accountable performance reviews are undertaken according to the work role.

Each staff member will be required to participate in one Performance Review per year.

This process involves a collaborative resolution of work role issues, continuing professional development and support.

Staff Performance Review

